Applying for teacher registration

A guide to the process

Applying for Teacher Registration

You cannot legally be employed to teach in Tasmania until you receive formal notification from the Board that your registration has been approved.

Is this the right guide for you?

If you hold current teacher registration in another Australian state or territory (not NSW) or in New Zealand use the guide: Applying for teacher registration under mutual recognition provisions.

If you hold international qualifications (and do not hold current teacher registration as above) your qualifications must be formally assessed prior to applying for teacher registration.

If you are a studying with University of Tasmania and graduating from a teaching degree this year use this guide: Applying for teacher registration - University of Tasmania Recent Graduate.

About your payment for registration

In Tasmania registration payments are for a calendar year, regardless of when in that calendar year the application is made.

For example: if you pay for one year's teacher registration which commences in 2017 that registration will expire on the 31st December 2017, whether you applied in February or October.

So please take care when deciding which year you want your registration to commence. From the 1st September, each year, you will have the option to select for your registration to commence this year or in the following calendar year. Start year is the first question of the online application for teacher registration.

Registration to Work with Vulnerable People (RWVP)

All applicants will be required to hold RWVP with the Tasmanian Department of Justice prior to gaining Tasmanian teacher registration. Another state's RWVP (or its equivalent) is not a replacement for a Tasmanian RWVP.

We recommend applicants get their RWVP underway prior to applying for teacher registration as RWVP applications may take up to six weeks to process. Options to meet the RWVP evidence requirements while living outside of Tasmania.

How to apply for Tasmanian Registration

1. Check you meet the criteria for registration:

Read all the policies relating to registration:

2. Complete the online application process in TRB Online.

- Click on Apply for New Registration and follow the prompts.

3. Provide to the Board certified copies of documentary evidence.

Use the checklist on page 6 to ensure you provide the required documentary evidence.

If you were previously a Tasmanian registered teacher we will already have your documentary evidence of identity on file. You will need to provide additional evidence if you have a new qualification to add, you need to change your name or you have a period of residency overseas not previously dealt with by the Board.

4. Receive updates on the progress of your application by email

- When your payment is received and reconciled.

- When your documentary evidence is received and processed.

5. How long will my application take?

All applications, including reapplications, can take up to four weeks to finalise, many are finalised at around 10 days. When your application is complete (online application submitted, payment and documentary evidence received in a standard required by the Board) we will assess your qualifications and generate an internal national record of conviction (RoC) request from our CrimTrac Agency.

Approximately 40 % of RoCs are returned in approximately 10 – 21 days. We need to wait until we receive that report back to confirm your character and fitness to teach before final approval can take place, and we cannot gauge how long that might take. Every application is processed as quickly as possible.

6. Notification of Teacher Registration status

If the Board approves your application for Tasmanian teacher registration:

- You will be notified by email of this approval
- Your name will go on the Tasmanian Register of Teachers **
- You can log into your TRB Online account to view/print your certificate and read about your rights and responsibilities as a Tasmanian teacher.

view your registration status, category of registration, TRB number, financial and cycle expiry dates.
