

All documentary evidence must be certified correctly to be considered by the Board.

A certified copy is a photocopy of an original document which has been certified by a Justice of the Peace, Commissioner for Declarations or, if overseas, a Notary Public.

Important Guidelines for Certification:

- The person certifying the copy must also sight the original document.
- Certified copies must bear original signatures. Faxes, scans or copies of certified copies are not acceptable.
- The certification must be on the actual copy, not on the back of the page and not on another page and attached to the copy.
- The certification must be on the actual copy and not on a sticker (unless the original signature extends beyond the edge of the sticker and onto the copy).
- Certified documents supplied to the TRB as part of an application will not be returned to an applicant.
- The TRB will not accept certified copies of electronic/scanned documents or downloads from the internet.
- The front of each individual page of the copy is to be marked exactly in the example shown below.

Who can certify my documents?

In Tasmania, Commissioners for Declarations include (all professional groups listed here):

- Full-time teachers at a school or tertiary institution
- Bank officers with 5 years continuous service
- Ministers of religion under the Marriage Act 1961
- Public sector permanent employees with 5 years continuous service
- Police officers
- Members of Parliament, or local government councillors
- TRB Staff

Translations

If any of your documents are in a language other than English, you will need to provide certified copies of the documents in the original language plus translations that are prepared and certified as correct by an official translation service or an accredited translator.
