

Department of Education

All vacancies for positions of 12 months or more are advertised in the Education section of the State Government website (www.jobs.tas.gov.au).

Temporary teaching vacancies of over 20 working days duration are known as fixed term teaching vacancies. These vacancies are filled via an online employment register called Employment Management System (EMS) or eRecruitment.

Teachers wishing to be considered for fixed term vacancies or relief teaching must be registered on EMS and have "active" status to be eligible for appointment.

For more information see <https://www.education.tas.gov.au/> and Teach, Learn, Live Tasmania.

Email recruitment@education.tas.gov.au

The criteria that must be satisfied for an "active" EMS status:

- A Teachers Registration Board number must be submitted in the application to indicate that teacher registration has been granted by the Teachers Registration Board (Tasmania);
- A certified copy of the applicant's completed teaching qualifications must be submitted to the Department of Education to determine correct salary placement; and
- Registration to Work with Vulnerable People with the Department of Justice, Tasmania.

Tasmanian Catholic Education Office

Tasmanian Catholic Education Office, school leadership, teaching and support staff vacancies are advertised in local Tasmanian newspapers and on www.teachers.on.net.

Employment advertisements can also be found at positions vacant.

For more information see: Employment

- To gain employment in a Catholic school in Tasmania, teacher applicants must be or able to be registered with the Tasmanian Teachers Registration Board.
- Successful applicants for TCEO and school based positions will be subject to Child Protection screening prior to commencement of employment. This requires the individual to undergo:
 - o a Police Check, (Form); and
 - Mandatory Reporting training
- Registration to Work with Vulnerable People with the Department of Justice, Tasmania

Independent Schools

Independent Schools advertise in local Tasmanian newspapers and on www.teachers.on.net.

For more information see:
<http://www.independentschools.tas.edu.au>

Employment advertisements can also be found at positions vacant.

- To gain employment, applicants must be or able to be registered with the Tasmanian Teachers Registration Board.
- Individual schools may have their own additional prerequisites for employment. Please contact the school for more information.
- Registration to Work with Vulnerable People with the Department of Justice, Tasmania