

Registration to Work with Vulnerable People

Providing your Registration to Work with Vulnerable People details to the TRB

All Tasmanian teachers and Limited Authority to Teach holders will be required to hold Registration to Work with Vulnerable People (RWVP) (also referred to as Working with Children check) with the Department of Justice, Tasmania.

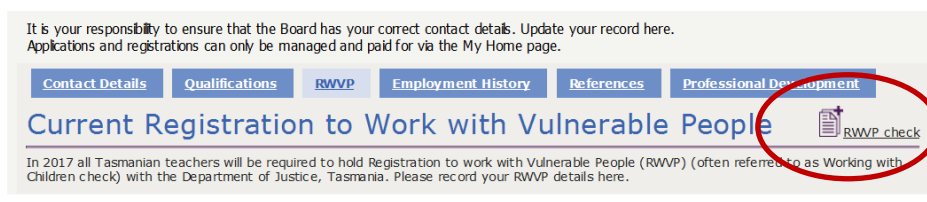

You will be required to record your Registration to Work with Vulnerable People (RWVP) details in your TRB Online account and your status will be automatically validated by the Department of Justice. The TRB does not require physical evidence of your RWVP, just the details in your TRB Online account.

Make sure you have completed the application process with the Department of Justice; completed the online application, submitted the required evidence of identity and organised the payment. Please allow at least 5 business days between completing the process with the Department of Justice and providing this information in your TRB Online account.

1. Log into your TRB Online account (use password reset if required).
2. Click on the second blue tab and then the heading RWVP:

3. Click on the add button RWVP Check:

4. Add an Application Number (if you have applied to Department of Justice (DoJ) but not yet been granted) or Card/Registration Number (if your application to the DoJ has been approved) and click on submit.

Registration to Work with Vulnerable People

As of the 1st January 2017 all Tasmanian teachers will be required to hold Registration to Work with Vulnerable People (granted by the Department of Justice, Tasmania) prior to the TRB granting teacher registration, Limited Authorities to Teach (LATS) or renewal of registration.
Your application with the TRB cannot be processed until you have finalised your registration with the Department of Justice.
Please provide your Registration to Work with Vulnerable People (RWVP) number. Your RWVP details will be automatically validated by the Department of Justice when you include your number and click on submit.
