

Inclusive Practice–Useful Resources

Supporting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Learners:

The eight-way framework of Aboriginal Pedagogy

This framework provides eight interconnected pedagogies to support and include Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander learners.

The Orb

The Orb provides teachers with Australian Curriculum aligned resources to assist the teaching of Tasmanian Aboriginal histories and cultures.

Respect, Relationships and Reconciliation

This website provides three modules relating to the APST. This information is targeted at pre-service teachers; however, it can still provide useful information for PRTs.

Narrangunnawali

The education component of Reconciliation Australia has a large range of resources available for use by educators.

Supporting Learners with Additional Needs:

Supporting students with disability: General Information – Department of Education, Australian Government

The fact sheets on this site provide general information the Disability Discrimination Act 1992 and the Disability Standards for Education 2005 (the Standards).

Inclusive education – Teaching students with disability \(aitsl.edu.au\)

This resource unpacks strategies that teachers and schools/early childhood services can use to provide personalised learning and support, including strategies for building a culture of inclusion.

Association for Children with a Disability

The resource assists teachers and education providers to work together with families to create inclusive educational experiences for children with a disability.

Kids Matter – Australian Mental Health Initiative

This site provides information on how to support children with mental health difficulties.

OLT

The OnLine Training website provides a range of courses for teachers and educators supporting students with a disability or additional needs.